subsequently called the licensee, and Giovanni Chiola and Gianfranco Balbo of the Dipartimento di Informatica of the Università degli Studi di Torino, subsequently called the licensor.

1. The licensor grants the licensee the right to use GreatSPN for its staff or students. The licensee has no right to sell or give GreatSPN to third parties without explicit permission of the licensor.
2. The licensee obtain the right to use GreatSPN for any of his requirements (education or research) at no cost, except for the initial handling charge.
3. The licensee agrees not to charge any “software cost” for the use of GreatSPN.
4. The licensee agrees not to use GreatSPN neither for direct military applications, nor in the framework of research projects covered by military secret.
5. The licensee is on his own as to how to use GreatSPN, i.e. the licensor can not be expected to provide any support for the software.
6. The licensee agrees to report any problem with GreatSPN to the licensor, but the licensors are under no obligation to correct those problems.
7. If GreatSPN is used in any reasearch projects that lead to publications, appropriate reference to GreatSPN must be given.
8. Neither source listings nor machine-readable versions of GreatSPN will be distributed outside the group of staff members maintaining the program.
9. In ordinary use, only the object code of GreatSPN will be available on disk, and it will be restricted to a limited group of users. Source files will be held in off-line storage (tape) and transferred to disk only when new versions of the package are created.
